KUNG FU AND SPORTS ACTION SWEEPSTAKES

WIN

You can win $100 worth of Big Jim toys in the fabulous new Big Jim Puzzle Sweepstakes.

Here's how:

1. On the opposite page are pictures of Big Jim's equipment and accessories. Along with the picture is a sentence or two telling you about the toy. But there's a word missing from the sentence.
2. Figure out the missing words, then put them in their proper spaces in the crossword puzzle below. When you've finished the puzzle, send it with the completed entry blank showing your name, address and zip code. The winning name will be drawn at random by Mattel from a bin containing all the correct entries. It's exciting. It's easy. It's almost as much fun as playing with Big Jim and his great new gear. So hurry and enter now!

Mattel's decision will be final and will be made within thirty days after the sweepstakes closing date. The odds of winning will be determined by the number of correct entries received. Liability for taxes is the sole responsibility of the winner. Sweepstakes void in Idaho, Missouri, Washington, and Georgia, and wherever else prohibited or restricted by law.

Enter as often as you wish, but each entry must be mailed in a separate envelope, postmarked by January 31, 1975, and received by February 15, 1975. No substitutions for prizes. The winner will be notified by registered mail.

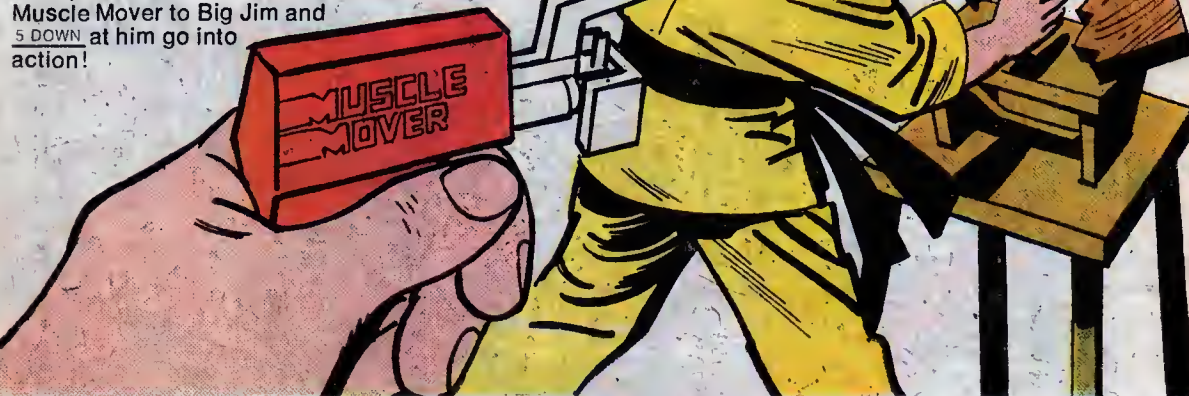

To obtain the winner's name, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to:

THE

Shadow KNOWS

Z-244

Again, a Frank Robbins Shadow, which makes printing the letters below particularly appropriate. Reaction to Frank's first job, "Night of Neptune's Death" in #5 was ... well, mixed is maybe the best word.

Take a look for yourself ...

Dear Mr. O'Neil and Mr. Robbins:

I have all five issues of The Shadow and have enjoyed all five and appreciated the artwork of Mike Kaluta. I tell you truly, though, that Frank Robbins artwork captures and entrances me; for me, Mr. Robbins' artwork brings to life, more so than previous issues, the vengeful, unrelenting spirit of The Shadow.

I just had to tell you this.

Thank you for all the pleasure given to me through The Shadow.

George Kentonzos, Boulder, Colo.

Dear Denny,

Here I am again. Now I talk about issue #5 of The Shadow.

As usual, the writing and the story were good. I wish I could say the same about the art. I own a Detective comic with Frank Robbins' art for The Batman. I dislike that art. On The Shadow, I dislike it even more.

In order to make up for issue #5, issue #6 has to be better than the masterpiece Mike Kaluta promised.

Michael A. Berger (No address given)

Dear Denny,

Concerning "Night of Neptune's Death" I have only words of praise.

The only thing that sort of displeased me was General Sodom's death. Sodom is the kind of villain (like King Cobra) who matched The Shadow in brains and resourcefulness. He deserves a return bout.

Donwyn Newsome, Newark, N.Y.

Did you actually see the general die, Donwyn? Maybe he did survive the plunge into the sea. Guess who knows ...

Dear Mr. Robbins,

I expect there will be a large amount of mail against your portrayal of The Shadow. I was almost tempted to write one myself.

However, the more I read The Shadow, the more I enjoyed your art. I thought your drawings of everyone but The Shadow were as good as, if not better than, Mike Kaluta's drawings. I especially liked Margo.

Now, to analyze your Shadow drawings: The problem is quite simple. It lies in the way you show shadows under his eyes (eg., panel four, page three). Without these shadows, your Shadow is quite good.

Perhaps this would not seem bad if you were the first Shadow artist—people would be criticizing Kaluta. But you are the second artist, and we readers have certain ideas now as to how The Shadow should look.

So, if you can be comforted by this thought—in a possible sea of criticism, you have at least one friend.

J. Douglas Wellington, Philadelphia, Pa.

You aren't Frank's only admirer, Doug. Not by quite some ...

Dear Denny:

How wrong could I be?

I knew, beforehand, that issue #5 would be drawn by Frank Robbins and almost cried over this. I asked myself that age-old question: "How come you guys can't leave something good alone?" Before I even saw ish #5, I began praying for Mike Kaluta to return, least I firebomb DC headquarters for my revenge.

The magazine hit the stands Wednesday. I picked it up and glanced through it between fits of uncontrollable rage. After I brought it home and knocked down a Dr. Pepper to regain control, I read it. Boy, was I wrong! I liked it!! Granted, it was a different artist with a different style, but it was actually good enough to relate the stories occurring in the "dirty thirties." And when I got back to the letters page and read that Kaluta would be back with a masterpiece, I screamed with joy.

Don't get me wrong—I want Kaluta permanently on The Shadow. But if you can't keep him, then I want Robbins.

Robert Kovalski, Clifton, N.Y.

Dear Denny,

The Tibetan monks who educated The Shadow surely knew their stuff. There are three precautions, recognized world over, for preventing the powers of evil from stealing a man's soul: Veil the mouth. Encircle the ring finger. And don't let anyone know the man's real name.

Steve Chapman, Winnetka, Ill.

Dear Denny O'Neil,

Thank you for printing The Shadow. Ever since my dad told me about The Shadow, I've wondered more and more about him. Now that I know about him, I'll admit he is the greatest superhero of all time.

Tom Hunter, Newark, Ohio

And, at the bottom of the page ...

... we'll bet that the great Robbins Controversy rages on after you Shadowphiles digest this issue. Rage to:

75 Rockefeller Plaza
New York, N.Y. 10019

And if you'd like to see what the present-day Shadow is up to, as well as read about a previously unrecorded past exploit, I suggest you catch Batman #259, which should be available at approximately the same time as the magazine you're holding.
Till next outing ... peace.
